

I think there are more problems than XM's doing weather and traffic. I have Satellite radio and still listen to AM and FM and I'm sure other people do too. Besides last time I checked it still was freedom of choice. I'm so sick of the crap with the FCC telling us what we can listen to or banning radio programs that they don't like. Leave XM alone.

Susan Marino